NOTES.

The American Philosophical Association held its seventh annual meeting at Cornell University, Ithaca, N. Y., December 26, 27, and 28. A full account of the meeting will appear in the next issue of the Review.

The American Psychological Association held its sixteenth annual meeting at Chicago, December 31, and January 1 and 2, in conjunction with the American Association for the Advancement of Science and the Society of Naturalists.

Professor George Trumbull Ladd has recently returned from an extended lecture tour in Japan.

Professor Edward Bradford Titchener, of Cornell University, has been appointed non-resident lecturer on psychology at Columbia University for the current academic year.

We have received the first numbers of the English and French editions of a new monthly, to be published simultaneously in Paris, Berlin, and London, under the respective titles Les Documents du Progrès, Documente des Fortschritts, and The International. It will be devoted to literary, political, and philosophical subjects. Among the contributors are Frederic Passy, Professor Karl Lamprecht, Francis de Pressensé, Sir John Cockburn, and the editor, Dr. Rodolphe Broda.

Professor Warner Fite's Introductory Study of Ethics has recently appeared in Japanese translation. The translation was made by N. Oshima, and revised by Professor Rikizo Nakashima, of Tokyo University.
